

PILLOW MENU

UNIVERSAL PILLOW

A semicircular pillow for use whenever the body needs pressure relief and support. Ideal for use under the heels, legs, lower back, arms or neck.

BUCKWHEAT PILLOW

A pillow that provides excellent support for the head, neck and back, as well as natural air circulation between individual hulls, resulting in an ideal temperature for a peaceful sleep.

FIBER PILLOW

Filled with extra fine fibers, this pillow gives an incredibly soft feel for superb comfort throughout the night. It ensures your comfort and also aids in a refreshing night's sleep as the natural fibers provide a breathable sleeping surface.

HEALTH PILLOW

A support and anti-snoring pillow recommended for those who desire not only a better night's sleep but also need a more therapeutic sleep posture. Its dual lobe design supports the curve created by your head, neck and shoulders to properly align your spine and give you a perfect night's sleep.

FOAM PILLOW

Made for contouring your neck and treatment of nervous system diseases; designed for optimum support and pain relief.

CHINESE HERB PILLOW

A pillow filled with cassia seeds, which help improve vision, remove intensive heat from the liver, provide nourishment to the large intestine and promote smoother bowel movements.

MULTI-PILLOW

Designed for multi-purpose use, supporting and relieving different areas of the body from pressure, discomfort and pain. Ideal for pregnant women.
